

Tuesday, 21 April 2015

Daily Insurance A Daily Bulletin listing Decisions of Superior Courts of Australia

 Follow @Benchmark_Legal

Search Engine

Click here to access our search engine facility to search legal issues, case names, courts and judges. Simply type in a keyword or phrase and all relevant cases that we have reported in Benchmark since its inception in June 2007 will be available with links to each case.

Executive Summary (1 minute read)

Luo v Zhai (FCA) - contract - breach of share acquisition agreement - damages

State of New South Wales v Shaw (NSWCA) - contract - no term of mutual trust and confidence or duty of good faith implied in employment contracts - appeal allowed

Benton v QBE Workers Compensation (NSW) Ltd (NSWCA) - summary dismissal - workers compensation - abuse of process - leave to appeal refused

Vincent v Woolworths Ltd and Vincent v Counterpoint Marketing & Sales Pty Ltd (NSWSC) - negligence - work injury damages - collision with trolley at supermarket - neither occupier nor employer liable

Raviolos v Sydney Local Health District (NSWSC) - pleadings - medical negligence - defendant not entitled to particulars of amended statement of claim

Benchmark

Summaries With Link (Five Minute Read)

Luo v Zhai [2015] FCA 350

Federal Court of Australia

Perram J

Contract - restitution - consumer law - proceedings arising from share acquisition agreement - first respondent's company imported office chairs and sold them wholesale - applicant agreed to buy a 40% stake in company from first respondent for amount - agreement also contemplated stake would be lifted to 55% - applicant paid amount but did not receive any shares - applicant paid further amount to company to assist with its expenses - first respondent obliged to transfer shares to applicant by 30/6/12 but did not do so - applicant sued for return of money - held: first respondent breached contract - there was total failure of consideration but there could not be double recovery - first respondent did not engage in misleading or deceptive conduct - judgment for applicant.

Luo

State of New South Wales v Shaw [2015] NSWCA 97

Court of Appeal of New South Wales

Beazley P; Ward & Gleeson JJA

Contract - respondents appointed as probationary teachers assigned to school - NSW deemed to be employer under s42 Teaching Services Act 1980 (NSW) - respondents' probationary appointments annulled pursuant to s48(2) - determination made pursuant to s48(4) that they ceased to be employed by NSW Education Teaching Service - respondents claimed damages against NSW for breach of employment contracts - primary judge found NSW breached term of mutual trust and confidence implied into the contracts of employment but awarded no damages - primary judge rejected appellants' claim contracts were repudiated and found that even if they were repudiated, respondents' conduct was inconsistent with acceptance of repudiation - primary judge awarded costs in respondents' favour - parties appealed and cross-appealed - held: no term of mutual trust and confidence or duty of good faith implied into contracts - primary judge erred in finding provisions of Teacher's Handbook incorporated into contracts - appeal allowed - cross-appeal dismissed.

Shaw

Benton v QBE Workers Compensation (NSW) Ltd [2015] NSWCA 101

Court of Appeal of New South Wales

Meagher & Ward JJA; Adamson J

Workers compensation - worker sued former employer's workers' compensation insurer for damages for injuries in slip and fall while attempting to alight from cabin of prime mover - District Court summarily dismissed claim on basis proceedings were abuse of process because worker was seeking to re-litigate matters conclusively determined against him in previous proceedings he brought against truck owner - held: no error in House v The King sense in exercise of primary judge's discretion to summarily dismiss proceedings - appellate intervention not warranted - no error in primary judge's conclusion proceedings were abuse of process - any appeal on that basis bound to fail - leave to appeal refused

Benton

Vincent v Woolworths Ltd and Vincent v Counterpoint Marketing & Sales Pty Ltd [2015] NSWSC 435

Supreme Court of New South Wales

Campbell J

Negligence - work injury damages - plaintiff part-time merchandiser sued Woolworths and employer in separate proceedings for injuries suffered in course of employment in collision with trolley at supermarket - Woolworths and employer cross-claimed against the other - 5B Civil Liability Act 2002 (NSW) - held: no breach of duty of care by Woolworths as occupier - collision occurred because neither customer or plaintiff looked where they were going as ordinary care usually required - employer not negligent - plaintiff's accident resulted from failure of her and customer to see each other - judgment for defendants.

Vincent

Raviolos v Sydney Local Health District [2015] NSWSC 439

Supreme Court of New South Wales

Harrison J

Pleadings - medical negligence - plaintiff claimed defendant breached duty of care to him by failing to follow up on his condition to exclude existence of lung cancer or to diagnose it - defendant sought particulars of amended statement of claim concerning plaintiff's employment history - plaintiff objected to providing particulars on basis they were not relevant to current issue in proceedings - held: in the circumstances it was irrelevant whether malignancy was result of work related exposure to asbestos or cigarette smoking or other possible cause or causes - defendant not entitled to particulars sought - application dismissed.

Raviolos

Click Here to access our Benchmark Search Engine