Hillam v Iacullo [2015] NSWCA 196

Court of Appeal of New South Wales

Basten, Ward & Leeming JJA

Contract - successive loan agreements - appellant entered three written loan agreements with respondents - first loan agreement dealt with advance, second with both original advance and further advance, and third with the two prior advances and final advance - appellant promised to repay principal of each loan plus interest on fixed date and to transfer an "uplift" equal to double principal at end of term - third loan agreement also required appellant to provide respondents with security - appellant contended third loan agreement substituted for second so respondents not entitled to any sum under second loan agreement - appellant contended he was not obliged to pay "uplift" owing because respondents failed to advance final amount promised under agreement - held: third loan agreement dealt with prior advances in manner inconsistent with second loan agreement - third loan agreement necessarily rescinded second - third loan agreement not abandoned - respondents breached third loan agreement by failing to advance final tranche of loan on particular date, an obligation independent of appellant's obligation to procure charge - obligation to pay "uplift" dependent upon obligation to loan principal - not open to respondents to require appellant to pay uplift of double promised loan of when unwilling to lend all of amount on promised terms - appeal allowed.

Grocon Constructors (Victoria) Pty Ltd v APN DF2 Project 2 Pty Ltd [2015] VSCA 190

Court of Appeal of Victoria

Santamaria, Kyrou & McLeish JJA

Building contract - trial judge found applicant building contractor breached its obligations to respondents (principals) under a contract for design and construction of building - finding of breach of contract related to applicant's refusal to provide records to principal to enable principal to verify costs actually paid by applicant in completing project - held: trial judge erred in construction of 'actual trade, supplier, consultant or subcontract cost payable ...' in side deed and in accepting implied term that principal was entitled to be provided with records - leave to appeal granted - notice of contention dismissed - appeal allowed.

Grocon

Brirek Industries Pty Ltd v McKenzie Group Consulting (Vic) Pty Ltd (No 2) [2015] VSCA 185

Court of Appeal of Victoria

Redlich, Whelan & Santamaria JJA

Contract - costs - appellant failed to establish on appeal that trial judge erred in dismissing claims based on 2002 contract and negligence - however Court found trial judge wrong to hold claims made in reliance on 2004 contract statute-barred - trial judge had retired by time of hearing of appeal - Court sought and received further written and oral submissions - whether claim under 2004 contract for damages should be remitted - held: it would be unsatisfactory and inherently unfair to respondent to permit appellant to amend and advance reformulated claim - 2004 contract claim should not be remitted - pleaded case bound to fail - reformulated claim should not be permitted to be advanced - appeal dismissed - costs orders made.

Acquista Investments Pty Ltd v The Urban Renewal Authority [2015] SASCF 91

Full Court of the Supreme Court of South Australia

Vanstone & Lovell JJ; Debelle AJ

Administrative law - appellants would have wished to tender for purchase of land held by Urban Renewal Authority had land been placed on the open market – land not placed on open market - land made subject of deed which granted options to third respondent to purchase land - trial judge found decision to enter deed unlawful because "mandatory considerations" in s11 Public Corporations Act 1993 (SA) overlooked or not applied and unreasonable in Wednesbury sense due to insufficient investigation of land's value and of alternative of putting it on market, but that contract was not rendered void - appellants argued trial judge should have declared deed void or unenforceable - held (by majority): findings that deed was unlawful and legally unreasonable set aside - in any event decision to enter into deed not susceptible of judicial review - appeal dismissed.

La Belle Dame sans Merci: A Ballad

By John Keats

O what can ail thee, knight-at-arms,
Alone and palely loitering?
Thesedgehas withered from the lake,
And no birds sing.

O what can ail thee, knight-at-arms,
Sohaggardand so woe-begone?
The squirrel's granary is full,
And the harvest's done.

I see a lily on thy brow,
With anguish moist and fever-dew,
And on thy cheeks a fading rose
Fast withereth too.

I met a lady in themeads, Full beautiful—a faery's child,
Her hair was long, her foot was light,
And her eyes were wild.

I made a garland for her head,
And bracelets too, and fragrant zone;
She looked at me as she did love,
Andmade sweet moan

I set her on my pacing steed,
And nothing else saw all day long,
For sidelong would she bend, and sing
A faery's song.

She found me roots of relish sweet,
Andhoney wild, and manna-dew,
And sure in language strange she said—
'I love thee true'.

She took me to herElfin grot,
And there she wept and sighed full sore,
And there I shut her wild wild eyes
With kisses four.

And there she lullèd me asleep,

Benchmark

And there I dreamed—Ah! woe betide!—
The latest dream I ever dreamt
On the cold hill side.

I saw pale kings and princes too, Pale warriors, death-pale were they all;
They cried—'La Belle Dame sans Merci
Thee hathin thrall!'

I saw their starved lips in the gloam,
With horrid warning gapèd wide,
And I awoke and found me here,
On the cold hill's side.

And this is why Isojournhere,
Alone and palely loitering,
Though the sedge is withered from the lake,
And no birds sing.
