A Stormy November Evening, Gradually Clearing up in a Mountainous Country

By: Anna Seward

CEASED is the rain, but heavy drops yet fall From the drenched roof; yet murmurs the sunk wind Round the dim hills; can yet a passage find Whistling through yon cleft rock, and ruined wall. Loud roar the angry torrents, and appall, 5 Though distant. A few stars, emerging kind, With green rays tremble through their misty shrouds; And the moon gleams between the sailing clouds On half the darkened hill. Now blasts remove The shadowing clouds, and on the mountain's brow. 10 Full-orbed she shines. Half sunk within its cove Heaves the lone boat, with gulphing sound:—and lo! Bright rolls the settling lake, and brimming rove The vale's blue rills, and glitter as they flow!
